

ENCOURAGED

by the liberal patronage of Williamsburg and adjoining counties I am opening up the largest and most complete stock of goods ever brought to Kingstree. They were bought when the market was down, and I can say I will sell now below market prices.

In order to sell country merchants, we are competing with Charleston prices on GROCERIES, and have been saving them money.

I have extra low prices on tinware and stoves.

By buying our stock of BREACH-LOADING GUNS and PISTOLS before the prices advanced, we can sell you them now at 30 per cent less than the market prices.

Will sell you Good Tobacco in 10-pound Caddies at 19c a pound.

Checked Homespun @ 3 1/2. Full line of Gingham @ 3 1/2 up. Men's Suits @ $2.15 and up. Full line of Boys' Clothing &c.

Furniture Department complete.

All of my flour bought before the rise. Do as your friends do, buy from us and save money, as you will remember our motto is "underbuy, undersell, cash before delivery."

H D Reddick, Prop., The Broadway Racket Store.

KINGSTREE'S BASEBALL CLUB

A SHORT SKETCH OF WILLIAMSBURG'S CHAMPIONS.

They Have a Record of .857, as Computed by the National League, Which is a Very High Average.

Now that the baseball season is over, we will give a brief account of some of the games played during the summer. It is a well known fact that Kingstree's crack team won twelve out of fourteen games played in this county. While, of course, we will not go into the details of every game, we will endeavor to bring out some points of interest all along.

The first game of the season was played with the Lake City club, on their ground. Our boys had been practicing very little and were hardly in shape to appear upon the field. A picnic was given near the grounds of the Lake-Citians, and to this our team was invited.

In the afternoon the game took place. It was closely played all through and several good plays were made. A pretty bad beginning was made for our nine.

There was lots of kicking, for there was lots of kicking at the decisions of the umpire, who was not at fault, and the members of Kingstree's club did a great part. Quite a number of spectators witnessed the game, and they were all more or less disgusted at the "pow-wow"

Moore was badly hurt.

among the players, but no one seemed to be angry. After a long and uninteresting fight, the game was won by the Lake-City boys by one run.

The second game with Lake City took place some weeks later, on Kingstree soil, and our club was victorious, the score being 28 to 6. A third game was to have been played between the two nines, but when the Kingstree club took the field no batter showed up for the visitors, and the umpire declared the game forfeited to our boys. The captain of the Lake City club, in a printed statement in a county paper gave as his reason for not playing that he had expressed a desire to see a certain man pitch for Kingstree and when another man was put into the box he would not consent to it, saying that a promise had been made him by the captain of Kingstree.

Two or three game were played against the Black River club, and in every one of them the Kingstree lads came out on top.

Three games were played with the Indiantown nine — one here and two at Indiantown. In the first game, which was played here, Kingstree won. It looked as if the visitors would be shut out, but in the fourth inning J. Ervin was struck in the face by a pitched ball from Gilland, and the youthful pitcher became wild and allowed nine runs to be made that inning. About two weeks after this, our boys, accompanied by fifty "rooters," went to Indiantown intending to "eat 'em up." The "rooters," the horses and vehicles were all bedecked in the team colors, black and orange, and the team's yells went up often. Much rooting was done, but all to no avail. Our boys were defeated. We lost that game and one rooter was sick for several days afterwards. But a day of reckoning came. Our team went to Indiantown again, and this time to win sure. About seventy-five cranks went along this time. As on the former occasion, a picnic had been prepared for us by our Indiantown friends and a royal time was had. During the game in the afternoon every man did good work and Kingstree won the game. Our boys were much elated, as in defeating these men our team won from their strongest competitors for the county championship.

The Ox-Swamp club was a hard one to down, but the Kingstree crack team was too much for them. Several other games were played during the season but it would take too much time and space to mention them. Now for the individual players. Gilland pitched great ball, and his record is as good as, or better than, that of any pitcher in the county. Askins pitched some, but played in centerfield in nearly every game. Brown as a base runner. His record is without a flaw. Epps was the star catcher of the club, and the way he could throw to bases was a caution. On first base was Julian Jacobs, who never failed to make the base runner weary. McClary played second and the men of the opposite line always feared him. Elwell, the heavy batter, "stuck it to 'em" on third, and many men "died" by his hand. "The old reliable" N Jacobs played short stop, and when a ball came anywhere around, he would surely "kill" it. In right field was Brown. His great feat was base running, but a better fielder would be difficult to discover. Arms played left field and never once did he miss a fly, but "ate" everything that came his way.

Several substitutes were "shoved in" during the season. W R Scott played three or four games. He was a pitcher, and his curves puzzled the best of ball players. Moore was one of the finest catchers we had. His only trouble was that he would come close to the batter, and would get struck with the bat. He also suffered from Nappie at short, being hit with a ball thrown from the catcher to second base, while he (Moore) was a base runner, which caused him to retire from the game. Bristow played first in one or two games, but an accident caused him to walk with a stick for several days. He was often applauded by the ladies who know a good play when Arms ate everything, they don't see it. Martin held down second bag, in the absence of McClary, and was termed "Wofford," on account of his excellent plays. Montie Jacobs played real well, and won the admiration of the spectators every time. "Montie" Scott was a favorite with all. His special feature was surprising everybody by his good plays. C. J. Lesene, W. V. Brockinton and G. T. Bullard were among the business men of the town who played at times, and Mr. Louis Stackley umpired nearly every game. His decisions always gave general satisfaction. He walked with a stick. In fact, and for that reason no player or outsider ever wanted to maul the umpire. Then, too, Mr. Stackley is a man of large proportion them. Now for the individual players. Gilland pitched great ball, and his record is as good as, or better than, that of any pitcher in the county. Askins pitched some, but played in centerfield in nearly every game. Brown as a base runner. His record is without a flaw. Epps was the star catcher of the club, and the way he could throw to bases was a caution. On first base was Julian Jacobs, who never failed to make the base runner weary. McClary played second and the men of the opposite line always feared him. Elwell, the heavy batter, "stuck it to 'em" on third, and many men "died" by his hand. "The old reliable" N Jacobs played short stop, and when a ball came anywhere around, he would surely "kill" it. In right field was Brown. His great feat was base running, but a better fielder would be difficult to discover. Arms played left field and never once did he miss a fly, but "ate" everything that came his way.

Several substitutes were "shoved in" during the season. W R Scott played three or four games. He was a pitcher, and his curves puzzled the best of ball players. Moore was one of the finest catchers we had. His only trouble was that he would come close to the batter, and would get struck with the bat. He also suffered from Nappie at short, being hit with a ball thrown from the catcher to second base, while he (Moore) was a base runner, which caused him to retire from the game. Bristow played first in one or two games, but an accident caused him to walk with a stick for several days. He was often applauded by the ladies who know a good play when Arms ate everything, they don't see it. Martin held down second bag, in the absence of McClary, and was termed "Wofford," on account of his excellent plays. Montie Jacobs played real well, and won the admiration of the spectators every time. "Montie" Scott was a favorite with all. His special feature was surprising everybody by his good plays. C. J. Lesene, W. V. Brockinton and G. T. Bullard were among the business men of the town who played at times, and Mr. Louis Stackley umpired nearly every game. His decisions always gave general satisfaction. He walked with a stick. In fact, and for that reason no player or outsider ever wanted to maul the umpire. Then, too, Mr. Stackley is a man of large proportion them. Now for the individual players. Gilland pitched great ball, and his record is as good as, or better than, that of any pitcher in the county. Askins pitched some, but played in centerfield in nearly every game. Brown as a base runner. His record is without a flaw. Epps was the star catcher of the club, and the way he could throw to bases was a caution. On first base was Julian Jacobs, who never failed to make the base runner weary. McClary played second and the men of the opposite line always feared him. Elwell, the heavy batter, "stuck it to 'em" on third, and many men "died" by his hand. "The old reliable" N Jacobs played short stop, and when a ball came anywhere around, he would surely "kill" it. In right field was Brown. His great feat was base running, but a better fielder would be difficult to discover. Arms played left field and never once did he miss a fly, but "ate" everything that came his way.

Several substitutes were "shoved in" during the season. W R Scott played three or four games. He was a pitcher, and his curves puzzled the best of ball players. Moore was one of the finest catchers we had. His only trouble was that he would come close to the batter, and would get struck with the bat. He also suffered from Nappie at short, being hit with a ball thrown from the catcher to second base, while he (Moore) was a base runner, which caused him to retire from the game. Bristow played first in one or two games, but an accident caused him to walk with a stick for several days. He was often applauded by the ladies who know a good play when Arms ate everything, they don't see it. Martin held down second bag, in the absence of McClary, and was termed "Wofford," on account of his excellent plays. Montie Jacobs played real well, and won the admiration of the spectators every time. "Montie" Scott was a favorite with all. His special feature was surprising everybody by his good plays. C. J. Lesene, W. V. Brockinton and G. T. Bullard were among the business men of the town who played at times, and Mr. Louis Stackley umpired nearly every game. His decisions always gave general satisfaction. He walked with a stick. In fact, and for that reason no player or outsider ever wanted to maul the umpire. Then, too, Mr. Stackley is a man of large proportion them. Now for the individual players. Gilland pitched great ball, and his record is as good as, or better than, that of any pitcher in the county. Askins pitched some, but played in centerfield in nearly every game. Brown as a base runner. His record is without a flaw. Epps was the star catcher of the club, and the way he could throw to bases was a caution. On first base was Julian Jacobs, who never failed to make the base runner weary. McClary played second and the men of the opposite line always feared him. Elwell, the heavy batter, "stuck it to 'em" on third, and many men "died" by his hand. "The old reliable" N Jacobs played short stop, and when a ball came anywhere around, he would surely "kill" it. In right field was Brown. His great feat was base running, but a better fielder would be difficult to discover. Arms played left field and never once did he miss a fly, but "ate" everything that came his way.

Several substitutes were "shoved in" during the season. W R Scott played three or four games. He was a pitcher, and his curves puzzled the best of ball players. Moore was one of the finest catchers we had. His only trouble was that he would come close to the batter, and would get struck with the bat. He also suffered from Nappie at short, being hit with a ball thrown from the catcher to second base, while he (Moore) was a base runner, which caused him to retire from the game. Bristow played first in one or two games, but an accident caused him to walk with a stick for several days. He was often applauded by the ladies who know a good play when Arms ate everything, they don't see it. Martin held down second bag, in the absence of McClary, and was termed "Wofford," on account of his excellent plays. Montie Jacobs played real well, and won the admiration of the spectators every time. "Montie" Scott was a favorite with all. His special feature was surprising everybody by his good plays. C. J. Lesene, W. V. Brockinton and G. T. Bullard were among the business men of the town who played at times, and Mr. Louis Stackley umpired nearly every game. His decisions always gave general satisfaction. He walked with a stick. In fact, and for that reason no player or outsider ever wanted to maul the umpire. Then, too, Mr. Stackley is a man of large proportion them. Now for the individual players. Gilland pitched great ball, and his record is as good as, or better than, that of any pitcher in the county. Askins pitched some, but played in centerfield in nearly every game. Brown as a base runner. His record is without a flaw. Epps was the star catcher of the club, and the way he could throw to bases was a caution. On first base was Julian Jacobs, who never failed to make the base runner weary. McClary played second and the men of the opposite line always feared him. Elwell, the heavy batter, "stuck it to 'em" on third, and many men "died" by his hand. "The old reliable" N Jacobs played short stop, and when a ball came anywhere around, he would surely "kill" it. In right field was Brown. His great feat was base running, but a better fielder would be difficult to discover. Arms played left field and never once did he miss a fly, but "ate" everything that came his way.

tions. One trouble that faced our team the entire summer was the need of a good ground, and had there been one obtainable, no doubt the average plays of every member would have been higher. Next season the boys hope to have a suitable ground, and intend to retain the championship of the county which they won this year by such hard work, and in their desire they have the good wishes of every resident of the town, particularly the ladies.

There is lots of good baseball "material" in Kingstree as well as in different parts of the county, and there is no reason in the world why we should not have a regular county league next year and have a schedule of games covering the entire season. It would furnish lots of fun for the people and would be much appreciated by them.

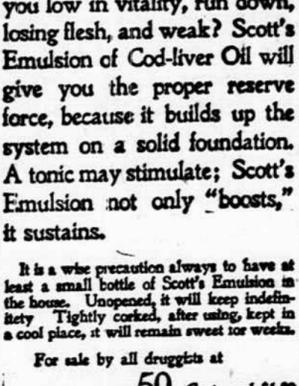

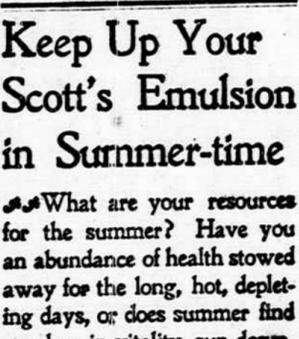

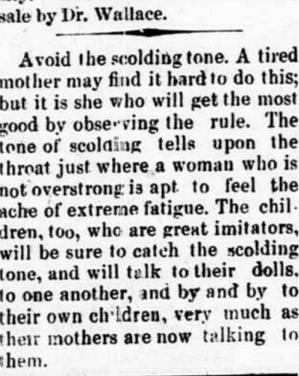

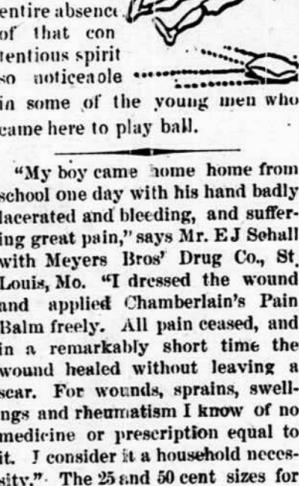

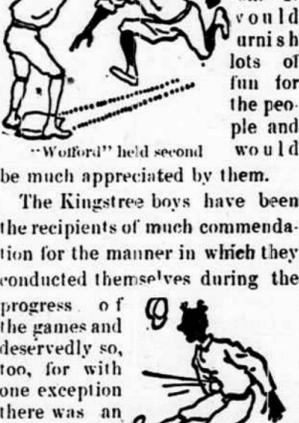

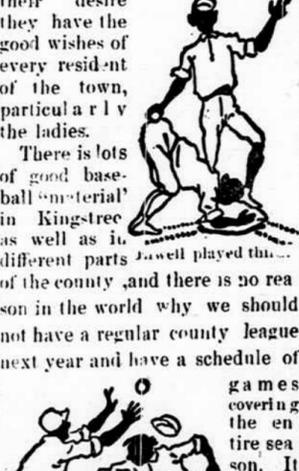

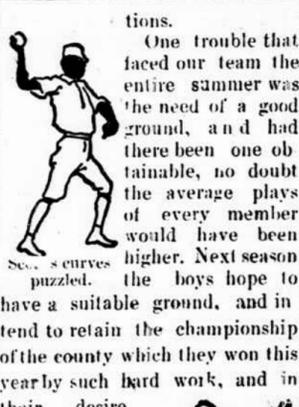

The Kingstree boys have been the recipients of much commendation for the manner in which they conducted themselves during the progress of the games and deservedly so, too, for with one exception there was an entire absence of that contentious spirit so noticeable in some of the young men who came here to play ball.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E J Schall with Meyers Bros' Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time the wound healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Dr. Wallace.

Avoid the scolding tone. A tired mother may find it hard to do this; but it is she who will get the most good by observing the rule. The tone of scolding tells upon the throat just where a woman who is not overstrong is apt to feel the ache of extreme fatigue. The children, too, who are great imitators, will be sure to catch the scolding tone, and will talk to their dolls, to one another, and by and by to their own children, very much as their mothers are now talking to them.

Keep Up Your Scott's Emulsion in Summer-time

What are your resources for the summer? Have you an abundance of health stowed away for the long, hot, depleting days, or does summer find you low in vitality, run down, losing flesh, and weak? Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil will give you the proper reserve force, because it builds up the system on a solid foundation. A tonic may stimulate; Scott's Emulsion not only "boosts," it sustains.

BUGGIES, HARNESS, SADDLES.

The largest line ever brought to this market. Prices are all right—I guarantee that.

Examine my Stock Before Buying

M. F. HELLER.

Notice for Final Discharge. Notice is hereby given that I will apply to the Probate Judge for Williamsburg county on the 27th day of September 1897 for letters dismisory as guardian of R. E. GoJwin.

W. J. GODWIN, Guardian.

August 25th, 1897.

Summons for Relief, STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF WILLIAMSBURG, Court of Common Pleas.

M J Salters, Plaintiff, against James McGill, David McGill, Sarah McGill, John McGill, Sidney McGill, Jr., Fanny McGill, Ellen McGill and Eugene McGill, Defendants.

Summons for Relief (Complaint not served.) To the Defendants James McGill and David McGill: You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint in this action, which has been filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas for the said county, and to serve a copy of your answer to the said complaint on the subscriber at his office in Kingstree, S C, within twenty days after the service hereof, exclusive of the day of such service; and if you fail to answer the complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff in this action will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

JOHN A. KELLEY, Plaintiff's Attorney.

Kingstree S C, Aug 31 A D 1897.

To the Defendants James McGill and David McGill: Take notice that the complaint in this action together with the summons, of which this is a copy, was filed in the office of the clerk of the court for Williamsburg county at the town of Kingstree, in the State of South Carolina, on the 21st day of August, 1897.

JOHN A. KELLEY, Plaintiff's Attorney.

GLENN SPRINGS HOTEL GLENN SPRINGS, S. C.

SPECIAL RATES DURING SEPTEMBER. Dancing, Tennis, Billiards, Bowling, &c., &c. The Best Place to Enjoy Your Vacation.

For rate of board apply to Simpson & Simpson. For rates of water apply to Paul Simpson.

Same Place. 59 Same Business

YEARS J. N. Robson & Son. 136 East Bay and Nos. 1 and 2 Atlantic Wharf. Commission Merchants and Dealers Choice Hay, Oats, Corn and Prepared Cow Consignments of Cotton, Poultry, Eggs and Farm Products Solicited. When you ship your products there is a great satisfaction in knowing you are dealing with a reliable house. J. N. ROBSON & SON, Charleston, S. C.

The Page Woven Wire Fence.

Sample of this fencing and post can be seen at the cemetery at Kingstree, S C. also the same fencing on wooden posts at the late S. P. Brockinton's.

Is considered the best and cheapest of all fences. Where introduced, they are taking the place of ALL other fencing. It is strong and durable—lasting a life time. This company manufactures several grades of fencing, running from 7 to 25 wires, thus making a fence that is rabbit-tight. They also manufacture ornamental fencing for yards, &c. Orders are respectfully solicited. Any information desired will be gladly furnished by the undersigned.

EDWIN HARPER, Agt., Page Woven Wire Fence Co., And Bond Steel Post Co.

KEEP YOUR BOWELS STRONG ALL SUMMER! SANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets CURE CONSTIPATION REGULATE THE LIVER ALL DRUGGISTS. It is a wise precaution always to have at least a small bottle of Scott's Emulsion in the house. Unopened, it will keep indefinitely. Tightly corked, after using, kept in a cool place, it will remain sweet for weeks. For sale by all druggists at 50 Cents and $1.00.